

Season closed

Shrine falls to Loyola in district final to end 2014 with 8-3 record
— SPORTS/8A

INSIDE ROYAL OAK HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO PERFORM 'OKLAHOMA!' — PAGE 3A

WWW.FACEBOOK.COM/ROYALOAKREVIEW

ABOVE: Russell Levine, vice president of the Michigan WWII Legacy Memorial, presents plans for the group's memorial set for Memorial Park at 13 Mile Road and Woodward Avenue. The plans and permits are all in place, and the organization is raising money. Once $3 million is collected, the memorial could be built in about six months.

Photos by Patricia O'Blenes

LEFT, TOP: Author Teresa Irish reads from her book, "A Thousand Letters Home: The WWII Correspondence of Aarol W. 'Bud' Irish" on Nov. 6 at the Royal Oak Public Library. As a Veterans Day tribute, Irish read her father's letters, which he wrote during WWII.

LEFT, BOTTOM: Irish brought along wartime photos of her father.